

The Trojan Knights

2011-12 First Year Experience Scholarship

Are you a freshman male whose first semester was fall 2011?

Do you demonstrate the aspects of an ideal Trojan?

Have you shown outstanding leadership during your first semester?

The purpose of the Trojan Knights First Year Experience Award is to honor and acknowledge exceptional freshman men for their involvement and contributions to USC and its surrounding area. To be eligible, you must be a freshman male whose first semester at USC was fall 2011. The award is chosen based on the following criteria:

- Honors and awards
- Involvement/leadership in activities and jobs (both on and off campus)
- Demonstration of the aspects of an ideal Trojan: faithful, scholarly, skillful, courageous, and ambitious

Select only one of the options for submission:

1. Email the completed application and a copy of your resume to yoshonis@usc.edu
2. Return application and resume to the Office of Campus Activities (TCC 330)

The deadline for submission is Friday, January 13th 2012 at 5:00PM

The Trojan Knights Present:
The 2011-12 First Year Experience Scholarship

Name:	Major:
Campus Address:
Permanent Address:
Phone:	Email:

Application Instructions:

- Do not list honors/awards from high school
- Please attach current resume
- Select only one of the options for submission:
 1. Email the completed application and a copy of your resume to yoshonis@usc.edu
 2. Return application and resume to the Office of Campus Activities (TCC 330)

Please list all campus activities you are involved with (if applicable, include employment and/or leadership positions):

If applicable, please list any honors or awards you have received since entering USC:

Which of the five aspects of an ideal Trojan (faithful, scholarly, skillful, courageous, ambitious) do you embody the most and why? (Please answer in 300 words or fewer)

Please write about one time in which you exemplified this aspect during your first semester freshman year. (Please answer in 300 words or fewer)

Are you interested in receiving information about the Trojan Knights? Yes No

Applications are due no later than Friday, January 13th 2012 at 5:00PM