International Tea Time

Thursdays, 2–3:30 pm

USC Engemann Student Health Center 3rd Floor

International Tea Time is a discussion group for the international student community to meet other international students, share impressions of the US and USC and learn about the experiences of others. This is a chance to discuss anything that is confusing, difficult, or amusing. This is a place to help in finding your way; adjusting to USC; dating in a new country; dealing with homesickness; understanding differences in communication or relating to others; being alone in a new country; and more!!! Tea will be provided!

Next Step: If you are interested in learning more, please call 213-740-7711 by Tuesday, 2/10/15 and ask to speak with Yoey Cheng, Psy.D or Hoda Abou-Ziab
