MEN DESTINED FOR LEADERSHIP

THE INSTITUTE prepares high-achieving African American men to be leaders of great character who make significant contributions to their communities, our country, and the world.

OUR INTENSIVE TWO-SUMMER PROGRAM INCLUDES:

- High-level paid internships
- Rigorous academic coursework
- Comprehensive leadership and professional development workshops
- Private briefings with influential leaders
- Housing provided by the Institute
- Service as teachers and mentors in the Institute’s Youth Scholar Academy

Participants join a network of more than 150 talented African American men across the world.

APPLY ONLINE FOR SUMMER 2014 BEGINNING ON NOV. 15, 2013

Applicants must be college sophomores, demonstrate strong academic performance, exhibit leadership potential, and commit to two summers. All majors are encouraged to apply.
