The gentlemen of Gamma Zeta Alpha Fraternity, Inc. at USC would like to invite you to support us in the fight against diabetes. Diabetes is the fifth-deadliest disease in the United States, and it has no cure.

Join us for our first workshop of ADA week “Prevention”
Wednesday, November 10, 2010
7 PM in KAP 156

The prevalence of Type Two diabetes is 1.5 times higher in Latinos than non-Latino whites. Approximately 10 percent of all Hispanic/Latino Americans (2 million) have diabetes. Hispanic/Latino Americans are twice as likely to have diabetes than are Caucasian Americans. Obesity and physical inactivity are the main risk factors for diabetes among Hispanic/Latino Americans. Let’s come together and combat this by educating ourselves on the issue that affects our community!

At the workshops, we will be educating and promoting strategies to share with our families in order to prevent diabetes. In addition, Silver/Gray ribbons are being sold to help fundraise for the American Diabetes Association.

*Free food and ADA items!
Latin Dance Night Under the Stars

"Got Salsa? Got Bachata? Merengue? What about Punta? All are welcome to join the brothers of Sigma Lambda Beta Fraternity and sisters of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority for an exciting night of fun Latin dancing under the stars at the University of Gateway Courtyard!!! The event will be held on Wednesday, November 10, 2010 from 8:30-10:30 PM.

We will begin by explaining the origins of the various dances. This will be followed by a dancing tutorial taught by Christyan Alan where he will explain the basic steps to the dances. You will then be able to put your moves to work as we play the best of salsa/bachata/merengue and punta!

Questions? Please contact either Jose Choto (choto@usc.edu) or Adam Flores (adamflor@usc.edu). You can view our Facebook event page at the following link: http://www.facebook.com/event.php?eid=160873903423777&ref=ts"

3rd Annual USC Law Admissions Diversity Workshop
Friday, November 19, 2010
10:00am to 1:00pm at USC Campus, Law School Building, Room 100

The workshop will include a detailed presentation by Chloe Reid, Dean of Admissions, who will share tips on how to submit a strong application to the law school. Topics will include: Navigating the Law School Admissions Process, Personal Statements, Are My Scores Competitive, Can I Afford Law School? Making Your Law Degree Count

We hope you will join us. You may submit your reservation at admissions@law.usc.edu or by calling (213) 740-2523. Please provide your full name, email, and phone number so that we may send you a confirmation. The event is fee; complimentary parking will be provided.

INTERNSHIP PROGRAMS OFFICE

Want to be a Global Scholar? If so, attend an information session to find out more about the program and hear from some of the 2010 Global Fellows. The final Global Fellows Information Session will be held on October 26th, 12-1 pm in STU B3. Applications are available now.

PAID INTERNSHIPS: Grupo Gallegos – Advertising Intern (4 Openings, $12/hr)

Your 12-week internship will expose you to all aspects of our full-service agency including: strategic planning, account service, media and creative. You’ll be part of our team as we develop and implement marketing campaigns for our clients, and you’ll always have access to our top management and our top talent. You’ll be inspired with the energy created by talented people who love their work, and you’ll love our cool office vibe. Open to college juniors and seniors. Bilingual (English/Spanish) a plus—but not required. Submit your resume to: jobs@grupogallegos.com. Please specify which department you are interested in: Account Services, Strategic Planning, Media or Creative.

UNPAID INTERNSHIPS: China Education Institute – Teaching Fellow

In China today, over 200 million Chinese students have severely limited access to quality education. While 70% of students from major urban centers graduate from college, less than 5% of students from under-resourced regions will ever attend higher education. If you are ready to make a difference after you graduate from USC, apply to be a China Education Initiative Teaching Fellow. China Education Initiative is an innovative non-profit working to address educational inequality in China by enlisting the most promising future leaders in the effort.

Please submit completed applications along with a copy of your resume to recruiting@chinaeducationinitiative.org. Questions? Contact: Leah Fine, US Recruiting and University Relations Team, leah.fine@chinaeducationinitiative.org.

Primero Sueño by Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz

On Friday November 12th, the internationally renowned Mexican theater director and performer, Jesusa Rodríguez, will be performing Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz's stunning late-seventeenth-century baroque poem on the quest for knowledge, Primero Sueño, at Ground Zero.

It is only the second time that Jesusa Rodríguez has come to Los Angeles, and the first time that she brings Primero Sueño to California. She will be accompanied by a soprano, who will be performing baroque Mexican music.

The performance will be in Spanish, with a simultaneous translation to English projected onto a screen. The event is sponsored by Latin American Studies and the USC-Huntington Early Modern Studies Institute.

We are especially eager to have students who are reading Primero Sueño attend, but the event is open to the public. For more information, see: http://college.usc.edu/ems/i/seminars/colonial_latin_america.html

"ART IS UNDENIABLE: the power of storytelling & universal difference"

November 18th, 2010 @ El Centro Chicano, 3rd floor of United University Church from 6 PM—8 PM

A creative expression workshop for multiple mediums, no experience necessary!

traci kato-kiriyama - a multi-disciplinary performance artist, writer, community organizer and arts educator - will discuss the power and necessity of storytelling as a political act and organizing tool. We all can build stories through art by looking at the person(al) behind the issue—sometimes it’s a matter of giving yourself the time and space to DO IT! This workshop will get people off their feet and into their own skin with some fun interaction and a little writing. Come one and all...

RSVP to ecc@usc.edu by Monday, November 15th, 2010! Refreshments provided.
