National Park Service – Historic Preservation Internship Training Program Summer 2011

The Historic Preservation Internship Training Program gives undergraduate and graduate students opportunities to undertake short-term research and administrative projects with the National Park Service either during the summer or the school year. Applications are invited for Summer 2011 internships with the National Park Service, the Department of the Interior, and the Veterans Administration. You can access them and more information at http://www.cr.nps.gov/hps/tps/hpit_p.htm The deadline for applications is February 25, 2011. If you have any questions about the program, please e-mail Guy_Lapsley@nps.gov or call 202-354-2025.

Congressional Budget Office (CBO) – Internship Program

CBO summer internships provide excellent opportunities to experience and observe the budget process and policymaking at the federal level. The internships, which have ranged in number from 10 to 28, are located in Washington, D.C. Students can apply online in January and February—and, for convenience, can register to be notified by e-mail when the application process is open. Information on the 2011 Program, including instruction on how to apply, is currently posted on our Web site at http://www.cbo.gov/employment/Intern.cfm. Applications will only be accepted online and must be submitted by the February 28, 2011 deadline. For additional information on the Program and CBO in general, please visit our website at www.cbo.gov
