LBSA’s Spring 2013 Corporate Luncheon
Wednesday, February 13th, 2013 | 11:00am-2:30pm | Town and Gown

The corporate luncheon provides an opportunity for students and professional recruiters to network in a unique way. Aside from having a traditional tabling session, recruiters will be given an opportunity to initiate intimate relationships with students while enjoying a 3 course meal. This event is LBSA’s signature professional event and the entire student body benefits from it.

Please contact lbsa@usc.edu for any questions.

Project ReMiX: Colorism: Perceptions of Skin Color in our Society
Wednesday, February 20th, 2013 | 6:00pm-8:00pm | USC El Centro Chicano, UUC 300 (3rd Floor)

Join us for an interactive workshop that tackles the issue of colorism/intra-racial racism that is embedded in all of our communities. Marcia Dawkins, Clinical Assistant Professor, Annenberg School of Journalism and author of, Clearly Invisible: Racial Passing & the Color of Cultural Identity will assist with leading the discussion.

Food will be provided!
Career Center: Internship Week 2/11-2/14
Monday, February 11, 2013—Thursday, February 14, 2013 | STU B3

Monday, 11 February, 2013
11:00 AM - 12:30 PM: Internship Week: Business, Entrepreneurship & Management
02:00 PM - 03:30 PM: Internship Week: Corporate Finance

Tuesday, 12 February, 2013
11:00 AM - 12:30 PM: Internship Week: Gaming & Technology
02:00 PM - 03:30 PM: Internship Week: Marketing

Wednesday, 13 February, 2013
11:00 AM - 12:30 PM: Internship Week: Government, Policy & Law
02:00 PM - 03:30 PM: Internship Week: Sports and Entertainment

Thursday, 14 February, 2013
11:00 AM - 12:30 PM: Internship Week: Non-profit & Arts
02:00 PM - 03:30 PM: Internship Week: Advertising & PR

Please visit http://careers.usc.edu/ for more information!

Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellowship!
Due: Tuesday, February 12, 2013 | 4:30pm | GFS 227
The Mellon Mays Undergraduate Fellowship (MMUF) Program is the centerpiece of the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation's initiative to increase the commitment to diversity in the faculty ranks of colleges and universities. The University of Southern California's MMUF program is a partnership between the Dornsife College of Letters Arts and Sciences, the Office of the Provost, and the Division of Student Affairs.

For more information and to download the application, please visit:
http://www.usc.edu/student-affairs/MMUF/index.shtml

INTERNSHIP PROGRAMS OFFICE

INTERNSHIPS:

Cancer Summer Internship at CDU/UCLA
Deadline: 2/1

USC Keck School of Medicine: Internship Opportunity
For more information contact:
ugonna.ihenacho@med.usc.edu

FULL-TIME ENTRY LEVEL:

1. City Year Corps Member for City Year
   Job ID: 9695

2. CORE Technology Rotational Program Associate for Comcast
   Job ID: 11571

3. Assistant National Bank Examiner for The Office of Comptroller of the Currency
   Job ID: 12275

For much more information:
Contact the Internship Programs Office in STU B1 or log on to connectSC at http://careers.usc.edu
What Matters to Me & Why with Francille Wilson

Wednesday, February 6, 2013 | 12:00pm—12:50pm | Ground Zero Performance Café

Francille Wilson, Associate Professor of American Studies and Ethnicity and History, brings her unique perspective to the What Matters to Me & Why program. Join us for lunch and hear what is important to Professor Wilson.

Francille Wilson is an intellectual and labor historian whose current research examines the intersections between black labor movements, black social scientists, and black women's history during the Jim Crow era. Her book, The Segregated Scholars: Black Social Scientists and the Creation of Black Labor Studies, 1890-1950, was awarded the Letitia Woods Brown Memorial Prize for the best book in African American Women's history by the Association of Black Women Historians. Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa appointed Wilson to the Los Angeles Commission on the Status of Women in December 2007 and she was its president, 2009-2010. In 2011 Wilson was appointed to a four year term on the State Board of the California African American Museum by the Governor. Wilson was awarded the 2008 Bethune Award for Excellence in Education by Our Author's Study Club of Los Angeles. She has served on the boards of the Association for the Study of African American Life and History and the Labor and Working Class History Association, and is a distinguished lecturer for the Organization of American Historians. Go to http://dornsife.usc.edu/general-information/ for more information!

The Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment Program

Due: Friday, February 8, 2013 | Summer 2013 | Howard University, Washington, D.C.

The Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Summer Enrichment program (SEP), a six-week program designed to prepare undergraduate students for careers in international affairs, is now accepting applications for 2013. The Rangel Summer Program, which focuses on helping students to explore options and prepare for careers in international affairs, takes place from mid-June to late July.

The SEP includes for-credit courses in U.S. diplomatic history, political economy, and writing at Howard University. In addition, participants meet with a wide range of governmental and non-governmental representatives to discuss current global issues and explore international career opportunities. The award covers tuition, travel, room and board and provides a stipend of $3,500.

Application requirements include U.S. citizenship, a GPA of at least 3.2, and full-time student status. The SEP is an excellent vehicle for outstanding students interested in foreign policy to sharpen their skills and prepare for possible careers in international affairs. The application deadline for the Summer Enrichment program is February 8, 2013. Further information and application instructions are available online at http://www.rangelprogram.org.

For more information contact Patricia Hanigan Scroggs, Director, Rangel Program at Howard University via emailpscroggs@howard.edu.
2012-2013 STAND Facilitator Application

Are you passionate about increasing social awareness, breaking down stereotypes & enacting social change? If so, we would like to inform you that the 2012-2013 STAND Facilitator application is now available on USC Application Clearinghouse (DEADLINE Extension: February 8, 2013). In brief, STAND aims to promote campus-wide dialogue focused on diversity. For us, this includes, race, ethnicity, nationality, sexuality, socioeconomic status, religion, gender, culture, disability and so much more.

Don’t hesitate to contact us at stand@usc.edu or check us out at www.usc.edu/stand with any further questions regarding our organization or the application process! Thank you for your interest.

Black History Month at USC : The Central Five

Wednesday, February 13, 2013 | 6:00pm | USC University Club at King Stoops Hall—Scriptorium Room

The Central Park Five screening. This documentary details the experiences of 5 Black and Latino teenagers that were wrongfully imprisoned for the rape of a woman in Central Park in 1989. As a result of this ongoing case, a book and now a documentary has been created to bring awareness to their case. We will be screening the documentary on next Wednesday, February 13, 2013 at 6 pm in SCA 108, 3 of the 5 men will be at the event to engage in discussion about the case and how it has affected their lives.

Central Park Five Trailer: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AehmA3hTLmA

RSVP: http://cinema.usc.edu/CP5

Reminders!

Are you on Twitter? If you are, make sure that you are following us @USC ElCentro to get the latest on the numerous programs, both social and networking, club events, internships, job openings, and more! Don’t miss out!

Follow us on twitter: @USC_ElCentro

Scholarships, Fellowships and Internships Folder!

Do you need extra money for college? Don’t know where to start in your search for an internship? Don’t have time to look for scholarships or internships? Stop by at El Centro and browse through our growing collection of available scholarships, internships and fellowships! Make sure to take advantage of this great resource! A staff member will gladly assist you if you are interested!
Housing Co-operative: Technicolor Tree Tribe!

The Technicolor Tree Tribe is an intentional community, a house where the residents live cooperatively and according to stated values. The house is a space that strives to be feminist (gender equality), non-hierarchical, environmentally conscious, queer, anti-racist, anti-classist, consensual. We try to live as a house how our ideal world would look.

The residents are mostly USC students, and we have weekly meetings to coordinate house activities and have communal vegan dinners where we take turns cooking for each other. We have cats, chickens, and the occasional bumpin’ party. If you’re looking for a place to live for the ’13/14 academic year or over the summer, please contact us at technicolortreetribe@gmail.com to receive an application or learn more. We’d love to hear from you!

Capital Fellows Programs

Due: Monday, February 11th, 2013

Prepare for a Future Career...Engage yourself in Public Service.
Apply by February 11, 2013 to the Capital Fellows Programs - www.csus.edu/calst/programs

- California Senate Fellows
- Executive Fellowship Program
- Jesse M. Unruh Assembly Fellowship Program
- Judicial Administration Fellowship Program

The Capital Fellows Programs offer a unique opportunity to participate in policymaking and development. Work 10-11 months as a full-time, paid staff member in the California State Assembly, California State Senate, California Executive Branch or the California Judiciary. Fellows participate in policymaking, program development and implementation and gain first-hand experience in the governance and leadership of the most diverse, complex state in the nation.

If you have questions regarding the Capital Fellows Programs or need brochures, please contact Sacramento State’s Center for California Studies at (916) 278-6906, calstudies@csus.edu or visit www.csus.edu/calst/programs