If you are interested in attending this event or purchasing a raffle ticket, please contact ECC Graduate Assistant, Alex Garfio at garfio@usc.edu.

Organization for Undocumented Student Issues

Join in! The Organization for Undocumented Student Issues begins this semester and we could use a few more members. I’m in the midst of finalizing the submittance forms and we need just a couple more members to qualify. If you’re interested, please e-mail us your names and student ID numbers ASAP. Also if you’re interested in being an officer, let me know and I’ll include you in our list of officers (The club still needs a financial officer/ Treasurer). If possible, please include you phone number, address, and e-mail address as well. Thank You.

UCLA Law Fellows Program

School of Law ~ Academic Outreach Resource Center
Interested in attending law school? Can’t afford to pay $1200+ for LSAT prep? We are happy to announce that there will be a low-cost alternative at UCLA. The LSAT course will start in April and will run up until the June test date. The 25+ hour course costs $125 for those who qualify for financial need-based aid and $275 for all other students and non-students. One section will take place on Mondays from 4-7 and the other will be on Tuesdays from 4-7pm. Here are the dates:

4/12, 4/19, 4/26, 5/03, 5/10, 5/17, 5/24

Additional classes (optional), right before the exam date: 5/30, 5/31

Proctored exams: 4/03, 5/08, 5/29 (11:30-2:30)

The instructor for the course has tutored several LSAT students and has been admitted to some of the top law schools in the nation, including Georgetown. He is a USC grad.

Priority will be given to those who qualify for need-based aid, but all are welcome to apply.
Applications can be found at http://www.campusprep.org/
Questions can be sent to testprep@colorado.edu
Phone: (310) 869-3719
Apply early, as spaces will fill up very quickly!

National Park Service – Historic Preservation Internship Training Program Summer 2011

The Historic Preservation Internship Training Program gives undergraduate and graduate students opportunities to undertake short-term research and administrative projects with the National Park Service either during the summer or the school year. Applications are invited for Summer 2011 internships with the National Park Service, the Department of the Interior, and the Veterans Administration. You can access them and more information at http://www.cr.nps.gov/hps/tps/hpit_p.htm The deadline for applications is February 25, 2011.

Congressional Budget Office (CBO) – Internship Program

CBO summer internships provide excellent opportunities to experience and observe the budget process and policymaking at the federal level. The internships, which have ranged in number from 10 to 28, are located in Washington, D.C. Students can apply online in January and February—and, for convenience, can register to be notified by e-mail when the application process is open. Information on the 2011 Program, including instruction on how to apply, is currently posted on our Web site at http://www.cbo.gov/employment/Intern.cfm. Applications will only be accepted online and must be submitted by the February 28, 2011 deadline. For additional information on the Program and CBO in general, please visit our website at www.cbo.gov

Capital Fellows Program

The center administers four fellowships programs. These programs, known collectively as the Capital Fellows Program, are nationally recognized. The 18 Assembly Fellows, 18 Senate Fellows, 18 Executive Fellows and 10 Judicial Administration Fellows receive an outstanding opportunity to engage in public service and prepare for future careers, while actively contributing to the development and implementation of public policy in California. The ranks of former fellows include a Justice of the California Supreme Court, members of the United States Congress and the State Legislature, a deputy director of the Peace Corps, state and local government officials, corporate executives and community leaders.

Fellows in each program work for 10-11 months, receive health benefits and a monthly stipend of $1972 and are employees of Sacramento State. They work as full-time members of a legislative, executive, or judicial branch office, and are typically given assignments with a significant amount of responsibility and challenges.

Anyone with a bachelor’s degree by September 1, 2011 and a demonstrated interest in state and government and public service is eligible to apply. There are no preferred majors. Applicants must be 20 years of age by September 1, 2011. Graduate, postgraduate and mid-career applicants are welcome.

The postmark deadline for all 2011-2012 fellowships applications is February 23, 2011.
