WOMEN HAVE ALL THE POWER!

The Latino Student Assembly & Ladies Striving for Unity
In collaboration with
Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc & Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.
Cordially invites everyone to:

WOMEN HAVE ALL THE POWER

Secrets of men, love, and relationships
With Special Guest, author, Michael J. Lockwood

Tuesday April 27th 7-9pm SGM 124

Lockwood will spotlight sex and feminism, and how they affect modern-day romance. He will deliver a rude awakening by exposing how a woman’s own behavior contributes to exploitation and infidelity. Lockwood provides women with detailed insight into the simplicity of a man’s M.O. as it relates to intimacy. The event will serve as a wake-up call for all attendees. He will challenge everyone to be responsible for their actions, raise their standards, stop compromising, and to use their power to find a partner who cherishes commitment and appreciates a fine individual.

Solidarity Demonstration In Front of Tommy Trojan!

Our fellow Trojan started the movement!

“As students we have a responsibility for political engagement that speaks for those unjustly treated. The passage of this harsh law in Arizona is an indication of rising discriminatory and anti-immigrant sentiments. We have the voice, and duty to speak out against these injustices; therefore, on Thursday April 29, from 12 to 2 pm. We will host a solidarity demonstration against the Arizona Law.

Where: Tommy Trojan @ The University of Southern California!

Instructions:
*Wear Black
*“Invite students to come.”

For the 2010-2011 academic school year, the organization’s Best & the Brightest Scholarship Program is awarding competitive academic scholarships in the amount of $3,000.00 to Southern California college students demonstrating financial need, leadership potential, academic merit, and an interest in pursuing careers in public service related fields. The Best & the Brightest Scholarship Program also incorporates other critical wrap-around supportive services that include, but are not limited to peer & professional mentoring, career guidance, and a State-of-the-Art Leadership Development Training Institute.

Please attached application and flyer, for you to post and forward to USC students in your classes, campus support groups, and among faculty and applicable student support staff so that your students can get started early to take advantage of this prestigious opportunity at hand.

Application Deadline is May 30, 2010.

To all Native Angelenos!

Here is a message from a Master’s Student here at USC:

“I am a Master's student in the Visual Anthropology program at SC', and for the 10'-11’ year I will be doing research and filming a documentary about the relationship between USC and the local community. Specifically, through the eyes of those SC’ students who are from the area. For this I am looking to interview both Male and Female students who fit this description, and would be willing to participate in the research and be on camera.

Thank you, Nicole Hernandez”

So if you would like to participate in this documentary, email Nicole Hernandez at nmhernan@usc.edu and also make sure to spread the word and help support our fellow Trojan in her research!
May Day March!

Join the May Day March on May 1st, at 8:45am!

Come to the May Day Parade to show student solidarity with Los Angeles workers, immigrants, and their families. Wear red and gold to show that we're from USC and that students care about these issues.

The event will be huge, 10s of 1,000s of people. Last year it was around 50,000 plus, but this year it will probably be bigger.

We'll be meeting at the intersection of Figueroa and Jefferson at the Galen center at 8:45 AM and then at 9:00 we'll take the F-Dash downtown to the march.

If you want to get there on your own, meet us at Olympic and Main in front of the Carl's Junior a little before the parade starts at 10:00.

The march starts at Olympic and Broadway and will go down to City Hall to demand the basic human rights too often denied to low-wage workers, immigrants but most important families.

Check out the Facebook event page, RSVP, spread the word and show support!!

African-American and Latino Unity Workshop

In commemoration of the ’92 Riots, let us take back the streets by coming together for a special unity service of prayer and praise to lift up all those families who are suffering due to unjust wages, lack of health care, a broken immigration system, and violence in our streets. Let us rejoice in the Spirit and inspire our communities to come together. For it is only with His strength that we will have the wisdom and the courage to bring about transformative change to our communities.

The theme will be Family Unity—Justice & Mercy and the event will be held on Thursday, April 29, 2010 at 6:30pm

Outside the USC Community— Arizona SB 1070

According to a Los Angeles Times front page story: http://action.ufw.org/page/m/3bedd1e/c14550ac3/466f7b7f2b46b4ace2763120391/VESP/, "The bill, known as SB 1070, makes it a misdemeanor to lack proper immigration paperwork in Arizona. It also requires police officers, if they form a 'reasonable suspicion' that someone is an illegal immigrant, to determine the person's immigration status...Immigrant rights groups say it amounts to a police state." Alessandra Soler Meetze, president of the American Civil Liberties Union of Arizona, said, "A lot of U.S. citizens are going to be swept up in the application of this law for something as simple as having an accent and leaving their wallet at home."

This means that anyone, even you, who walks in Arizona can be charged with a misdemeanor if you're not carrying identification to prove you are a legal resident.

The bill has just passed the Arizona House and could be on the governor's desk by Friday. Go on El Centro’s Facebook page and voice your opinion, we’d like to hear what you think.
